Jerome Laxale

Jerome Laxale was elected as the Member for Bennelong in 2022. Having served in local government for 10 years, including five years as Mayor of the City of Ryde, Jerome has long been a passionate and accessible advocate for his local community. Jerome and his family live in North Ryde, having lived locally for nearly 20 years.

Jerome is a member of the House Economics committee, and the Joint Standing Committees on the National Anti-Corruption Committee and Trade and Investment Growth. He takes a keen interest in climate change, health, housing, enhancing multiculturalism, and prioritising effective local representation.

Scott Yung

Scott Yung is the Liberal Candidate for Bennelong. Scott was born in Sydney to migrant parents and grew up in public housing.

Scott received a quality public school education before working as a teller at a local bank branch and later becoming the Head of Recruitment role at an ASX-listed wealth management company.

A Ryde local, Scott now runs his own education business helping children and their families across the Bennelong area.

Scott is focused on reducing cost of living pressures and backing local small businesses to get ahead.
